

Scholarship Application

Purpose: The CBBC Bank LOCAL Scholars Program was established in 2015 as a new means to invest in the future of our community. The mission of the scholarship seeks to provide financial assistance of $500.00 each to seven exceptional, graduating high school seniors accepted for undergraduate study in community colleges, technical schools and universities who have shown above average qualities in community involvement. The CBBC Bank LOCAL Scholars program principally targets students in two or four year academic programs; however, certificate/licensing programs (e.g., ultrasound techs, paralegal training, nursing, etc.) are also eligible.

Things to Know

1. The deadline for application is March 29, 2019 at 5:00 pm.
2. Type or print legibly. If you need an electronic application, please email Lana Pettis at lpettis@cbbcbank.com.
3. Applicants will receive email correspondence while their application is processed. Valid email address is required.
4. The one-time scholarship amount is $500.00 and is paid directly to the college/university/technical school.
5. One scholarship will be awarded to a winner at each of the 7 qualifying schools.

LOCAL Scholarship Awards: The CBBC Bank LOCAL Scholars award recipients are selected by a committee in three phases, and applicants are notified via email as to their status after each selection. Scholarship recipients are notified by phone if they are the winner. All recipients are invited to attend The Daily Times Academic Letters Banquet for individual recognition of their award as well as a group press release photo. The CBBC Bank LOCAL Scholars awards are given without regard to race, color, ethnicity, religious affiliation, disability, gender, or sexual orientation.
